

January 12, 2016 edition of Five Fast Flashes

January 13th – Moncton CyberSocial presents: Angel Den 2016. The Den will focus on partnerships between larger established companies and the smaller start-ups. Companies are always started to meet a need, but these start-ups are creating value for a big partner. Click here to RSVP.

January 19th – The Halifax Chamber of Commerce invites you to their All Ships Rise conference. Expert panelists and presenters will deliver dynamic and informative sessions to help you prepare for Nova Scotia's future prosperity. Click here to register.

January 21st – PMI-NB and Venn Lunch and Learn: Capital Asset Classification for Tax Purposes. Allan Bonvie, founder and National Leader of Ernst & Young's Capital Asset Review practice, will cover why asset classification is important to minimize taxes payable. Click here to register.

January 22nd – St. John's – If you are between the ages of 18-39 and have considered starting your own business, join Futurpreneur Canada and TD Bank to learn more about how they can help. Click here for more information.

January 28th – Business Builders: Creating Market Traction through Strategic Business Partnerships. One of the key entrepreneurial functions of both early startup and mature businesses is the importance of partnerships. How do you determine when to go it alone vs partner? Register here.