

January 22, 2018 edition of Five Fast Flashes

January 29th – Halifax – Learn about the opportunities which the CETA (Comprehensive Economic and Trade Agreement) affords to help your business be more competitive in the EU market, with a specific focus on industries such as manufacturing, agri-food and beverage, ICT, professional services and more. Read more here.

January 30th – Fredericton – RBC Lunch & Learn Speaker Series: Ryan Reid of BioNB on the subject of bioscience companies and innovation. Read more here.

February 7th – The Halifax Chamber of Commerce hosts the Annual State of the Province with Premier McNeil. This is your opportunity to hear directly from the Premier on various issues. Register here.

February 13th – St. Stephen – Business Bootcamp: basic business training program for newly self-employed entrepreneurs with no business background or training. Video curriculum plus 10 evening meetings with local mentors. Find out more and apply here.

The second-in-command does so much for a company ... what can the company do for them? Help them keep growing! Deadline to apply for 2iC8 is February 15th.
<http://www.wallacemccaininstitute.com/2ic>