

November 24, 2016 edition of Five Fast Flashes

November 29th - Halifax - Get your tickets for Propel ICT's Demo Day. The event will feature the TOP companies that participated in their Pan-Atlantic Launch and Build Accelerator programs. The companies presenting represent the best companies from this year's cohorts - 36 companies from all 4 Atlantic Provinces. Register here.

November 30th – St. John's – Meet the Buyers Reverse Trade Show and find out how your products and services could meet the needs of the Government of Newfoundland and Labrador, provincial municipalities, academic institutions, school boards and health facilities, other governments in Atlantic Canada and the Government of Canada. Read more here.

December 7th – The St. John's Board of Trade hosts their 24th Annual Business Excellence Awards event. Register here.

December 8th – Moncton – Attend the Lunch & Learn session How can Project Management support Strategic Management? You will discuss Mission Statements and Vision Statements then discuss how creating projects to support and organization's strategic objectives brings an organization from their Mission to their Vision. Register here.

December 9th – Halifax – Are you working night and day to grow your business but worry that you aren't making as much income as you should? Do you avoid dealing with your finances because the numbers scare you? Join Jennifer Nicholson to learn about five ways you can make more money without having to sell more products or services. Register here.