

April 26, 2018 edition of Five Fast Flashes

May 2nd – Moncton – The Honourable Pierre S. Pettigrew, Deloitte Executive Advisor and former Member of Parliament and Federal Cabinet Minister, will be leading a discussion on the changing social political landscapes and the dramatic effects they are already having on Atlantic Canadian businesses and economies. Register here.

May 2nd – The Fredericton Chamber of Commerce invites you to attend the session How to Empower Regional Economic Development and Innovation – the story of Economic Development in Finland. Read more here.

May 3rd to 5th – Halifax – Dalhousie University (LaunchDal) is pleased to invite you to the annual conference of the Canadian Council for SMEs and Entrepreneurship (CCSBE). Click here for all details.

May 8th – Halifax – BioNova and Emergence are hosting BioNova Boost: IP strategy talk for life science start-ups. During this presentation they will discuss different types of IP rights including trademarks, copyright, trade secrets and patents and how they can be used to create an IP strategy and build an IP portfolio. Register here.

May 15th – The St. John's Board of Trade hosts Innovation Week 2018 – Resistance is Futile. Join them for a discussion with Patrick Snider from the Canadian Chamber of Commerce about the implications for training systems and skills development that will affect your company now and into the future. Read more here.