

April 29, 2016 edition of Five Fast Flashes

May 3rd – The Greater Charlottetown Area Chamber of Commerce hosts their AGM during which Premier Wade MacLaughlan will provide his Outlook 2016 and guest speaker Geoff MacDonald will speak on The Incidental Entrepreneur: Becoming an Investor First. Read more here.

May 4th – Moncton – Business Builders Lunch & Learn: Defining your Business Development Function. This workshop will help participants understand BD vs Sales and organic growth vs new business and how to align the BD function with enterprise strategies, targets, and plans. Register here.

May 9th – 13th – St. John's – Many events will be hosted during the 2016 Innovation Week for which a number of public and private entities have come together with one common vision: to shine a light on the incredible advances being made in Newfoundland and Labrador's technology sector. Find out more here.

May 10th Halifax – TSX Ignite offers you Essentials for building and funding great companies, a must-attend conference for founders and business executives. Click here to see the agenda and long list of inspiring presenters.

May 17th – 19th – Join the National Angel Capital Organization and Brightspark Ventures to learn about Angel Investing basics and emerging trends. A panel of experts will share insights about investing in early stage companies and host a Q&A. Sessions will be held in Halifax, Moncton, Charlottetown and Fredericton. Learn more here.