

March 29, 2016 edition of Five Fast Flashes

March 31st – The Greater Charlottetown Area Chamber of Commerce presents an Employment Standards Lunch and Learn. Robert Yeo of the Employment Standards Branch, PEI Department of Justice and Public Safety, will provide an overview of the employment standards legislation and discuss: minimum wage, overtime, paid vacation, and more. Register here.

March 31st Deadline – The 18th Annual Kira Awards is looking for nominations for this New Brunswick event. The awards are now focused on innovation across all sectors. Click here to make your nomination or to buy tickets to the May 5th Fredericton event.

April 6th – The St. John’s Board of Trade hosts a breakfast with The Honourable Bill Morneau, Federal Finance Minister who will highlight the 2016 Federal budget. Register here.

April 7th – Riverview – Onboardly offers you the session “Simply Scaling” with best-selling author and numbers guru Greg Crabtree and Dan Martell, local tech entrepreneur. Register and learn more about this event here.

April 7th – The Halifax Chamber of Commerce offers the Lunch & Learn: Focus on Growth. Working with experts from Bluteau DeVenney, participants will create a strategic playbook, customized to their business needs, to achieve real results with the potential to double financial performance. Register here.